To whom it may concern

Netstar has successfully implemented a bid office through nFold's intervention. This was the best decision we could have ever made for our organization. nFold's services included the following services:

- Compilation of public sector bids
- Completing the tender forms
- Supporting various departmental heads with presentations
- Providing advice on new tender legislations or assist with interpreting the legislations
- Providing ongoing training

I would recommend nFold to any organisation and this has been an investment I do not regret.

Should you have any further queries, please feel free to contact me

Kind regards
